

Course Name: Safety and Health Programs

Course Description: This course is designed for employers, supervisors, and managers who need to thoroughly understand, implement, and communicate an OSHA program. Workers who need to be educated and aware of OSHA issues within their domain will also find this course useful. Moreover, OSHA officers and coordinators who need to develop an OSHA program and ensure conformance to the policies will see this course as a must.

Course Length: 1 hour

Prerequisites: None

Course Content:

- Understand the importance of effective safety and health programs
- Learn about the common characteristics of exemplary workplaces
- Understand the general guidelines
- Understand the major elements of an effective safety and health program
- Recognize the state programs
- Learn about consultation services
- Know about the Voluntary Protection Programs (VPPs)
- Understand the Strategic Partnership Program
- Learn about Training and Education
- Utilize Electronic Information

Testing:

Quizzes - All quizzes must be passed with a 70% to proceed forward to the next lesson. Final Exam must be passed with a 70% to pass the course.

