

Course Name: Demolition

Course Description: This course is designed for demolition contractors. Topics include preparatory operations, engineering survey, utility location, medical services & first aid, police & fire contact, fire prevention & protection, special structures, concrete structures, safe blasting procedures, transportation of explosives, storage of explosives, and procedures after blasting. This course covers the topics included in OSHA 29 CFR 1926.7 Subpart T.

Course Length: 1 hour

Prerequisites: None

Course Content:

- Introduction to "1926 Subpart T Demolition."
- Learn how to meet the prerequisites, in order to fully achieve the demolition targets, besides ensuring the safety of employees engaged in demolition work.
- To learn about the different types of demolition and the concerned requirements, different building structures and the applicable safety precautions for the demolition of the same.
- Learn how to store, transport and use the explosives, properly, for the demolition work, and how to avoid any mishaps during handling and use of the explosives or blasting agents.
- And of course to learn the related terminology

Testing:

Quizzes - All quizzes must be passed with a 70% to proceed forward to the next lesson. Final Exam must be passed with a 70% to pass the course.

